

United's Small Shipment Service

United's Small Shipment Service is designed for people who need to ship a few pieces of furniture, rather than an entire household. Whether you are sending a single piece of furniture to family members across the country, moving your son or daughter to college or managing an estate, United's Small Shipment Service can be a convenient and cost-effective way to ship your possessions. The same professionals that have made United America's #1 Mover® will manage your small shipment with care and expertise.

Available service includes:

- Professional packing of your items
- Price certainty
- Pickup at your home
- Professional delivery at the destination
- Shipment protection options
